Dedicated to:

WILLIAM DORTON

SERVANT OF THE LORD

"Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord"
—Romans 12:11

DUCATED at Mount Hermon School, Massachusetts, and entering Princeton Theological Seminary with thoughts of the pastorate where he might have preached the Gospel to hundreds, in the providence of God he soon withdrew from Princeton and was appointed by Mr. Moody to become the active head of the Bible Institute Colportage Association, through which agency he has preached the Gospel to millions.

Since June, 1897, Mr. Norton's genius has been entwined with the development and marvelous accomplishments of the Colportage Association; and since he has been so intimately associated with the Moody Bible Institute through the Bible Institute Colportage Association and from 1941 to the present has been a member of the Board of Trustees, the ARCH staff takes great pleasure in dedicating to him the 1946 issue.

We would take account of the following outstanding qualities:

I. Clearness of vision.

Mr. Norton quickly caught Mr. Moody's vision of preaching the Gospel to the multitudes by means of the printed page. Included in this vision are the following:

1. The desire to secure the salvation of lost souls who otherwise would not be reached;
2. To establish young Christians in the faith and cause them to be fruitful in their lives;
3. To stimulate older Christians to a life of prayer and service;
4. To combat error and all kinds of evil, and to deliver those who are being ensnared thereby;
5. To counteract the influence of pernicious books and magazines which flood the country.

II. Indomitable Purpose.

Despite changes which have come into the world in the last half century, one invincible purpose has dominated the life of this servant of the Lord.

III. Indefatigable energy.

Through many years, early in the morning, continually through the day, and late at night, he has gone about his work, reading manuscripts, passing on suitable books for distribution, and supervising their publication. His abiding faith in God has given him the poise to work on with patience.

We believe that when the Lord Jesus Christ returns, Mr. Norton will hear the welcome words of approbation, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant . . . enter thou into the joy of thy lord."

Be Thou An Example

1 Timothy 4:12

These words from the pen of the aged apostle Paul to young Timothy have become the means of presenting a real challenge to us as students of the Moody Bible Institute as well as to all believers.

The desire of our Christian lives has been to be a pattern worthy of His blessings. We have therefore, endeavored in the following pages to portray our lives as students, in word, in behaviour, in love, in faith, and in purity.

*"All experience is an arch wherethro'
Gleams that untravell'd world, whose margin fades
For ever and for ever when I move"*

Thus wrote Tennyson for "Ulysses." If experience is an arch, it is exceedingly appropriate that this book of experiences should be named The Arch.

You who are the graduates of this year's classes, having once entered the near side of the Institute Arch, are now finding exit on the far side, to go your various ways into service of divine appointment. You will find fading margins and lengthening horizons as you go on, but you will find the Presence of One who goes before and with His own. And you will be followed by the intercessory interest of those of us you leave behind at the Institute.

Our Dean's Words

"Be thou an example"

What a theme to live up to! See the largeness of it: "in word, in manner of life, in love, in faith, in purity." Lips that speak the truth, hearts that manifest love, wills that exercise faith, lives that are pure. We ask, Who can meet these exacting requirements? But God's commands are His enabling. The Spirit of God, who lives in you, purposes to live out through you the life of Christ. In proportion as you are examples, you the will be fulfilling the Word of God and, therefore, the hopes of those of us who have had a share in your training. In view of the weighty responsibility that is yours, fix your eye upon the goal, let nothing distract you. Go on with God. May you work for Him; rather may He work through you. Better still, may you live for Him; rather let Him live His life in you. "Present yourselves unto God, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God," and "as therefore ye received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him."

William

In Memorium

Max I. Reich

With thanksgiving to God we pay tribute to the memory of one of His choice servants. Dr. Max Issac Reich, Director of the Jewish Missions Course and member of the Faculty of the Moody Bible Institute, Bible teacher, poet, Christian, was God's gift to His Church. Those of us who knew him will not forget the depth of his faith, the enthusiasm of his spirit, the greatness of his love. Never sacrificing the truth, he nevertheless was able to embrace all in the arms of his spirit. He was a friend to all men—Jews and Gentiles, a servant of the Church of Christ, and a lover of his Lord and Saviour.

It would seem appropriate to conclude this brief memorial with words which Dr. Reich often quoted and which, in so many ways, characterize his life:

*"Drop Thy still dews of quietness,
Till all our strivings cease:
Take from our souls the strain and stress,
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of Thy peace.
"Breathe through the heats of our desire
Thy coolness and Thy balm;
Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
Speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
O still, small voice of calm?"*

A. FRANKLIN BROMAN
Superintendent of Men

"Be thou an example." These are the words of encouragement written by the Apostle Paul to Timothy, who was a young leader in the early Christian church. The idea expressed by the Greek word translated "example" means "a figure formed by a blow" in order to make an exact impression. Technically, it refers to a pattern, in conformity to which a thing must be made. In the ethical sense it refers to that which should be imitated.

Christian leaders are the patterns for Christian living that people consciously and unconsciously adopt. The teachings of our Lord are interpreted by the lives of those who profess to serve Him.

Students in training for Christian service are designing those patterns day by day, which become more firmly fixed as time goes on. I appeal to you that you fashion the design carefully and prayerfully so that our Lord will be seen in your service and leadership.

*AFB
A. Franklin Broman*

ANGELYN G. DANTUMA
Superintendent of Women

Someone has said that "precepts instruct us, but examples assure us that they are possible." God assures us by the example of the Lord Jesus Christ that His standards for the walk of a Christian are attainable through the power of the Holy Spirit. "He that saith that He abideth in Him ought himself also so to walk, even as He walked."

For others to hear Christ in our words, to see Christ in our conduct, to feel Christ in our charity, to sense Christ in our spirit, to be challenged for Christ by our faith, to be pointed to Christ by our purity is to have fulfilled in our lives Paul's injunction to Timothy, "Be thou an example of the believers."

Angelyn G. Dantuma

RUBY ANN JACKSON
Registrar and Secretary of Faculty

You who are this year's graduates have been with us long enough for us to learn to love you, and now you are leaving us. We shall miss you, but we would not hold you here, for your purpose in coming was to prepare to leave — for the places of service to which you might be called. We bid you God's speed as you turn your faces toward those various fields.

As you go may you be reminded that there is one task to which you are each committed alike —that of presenting to a needy world another translation of the Bible, a translation of the Word you have been studying into terms of every day living, that those who read may see a steadfast and faithful, consistent and true, vital, victorious life, and seeing it, recognize the Author, by whose love you are constrained. Then will your service be acceptable to Him, and blest by Him.

President's Message

"And ye shall be WITNESSES UNTO ME" both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth." Acts 1:8. What a great commission and what a serious responsibility for God's children.

For the class of December, 1945, no better motto could have been chosen, inasmuch as 75 per cent of our members have already felt definitely called to be missionary laborers.

God's commission is wide spread, and it begins at home—"In Jerusalem"—we can class that as city missions. Some of our classmates have the assurance that this type of labor is for them. Then it says—"In all Judaea"—we can class this as home missions. What a blessed privilege to carry this Gospel unto our own people in the neglected areas! "In Samaria"—what does this mean?—To us it may mean the Jews, the Japanese, some people of Europe—the despised people. "And to the uttermost parts of the earth"—to the outermost rim of the inhabited earth. Where ever He calls, we are willing to go.

We praise the Lord that He has seen fit to provide such a training center as the Moody Bible Institute. Regardless of where our Lord calls us to serve or what type of training we need for His service, we are banded together for one purpose—to win souls to Jesus.

"WITNESS UNTO ME," what a blessed privilege. May the Lord keep us true and faithful to His command, for His glory.

President's Message

As we look back over our period of preparation and study for the "high calling of God in Christ Jesus," we are more than thankful to God for the privilege of attending such a school as the Moody Bible Institute.

With all the riches of Christian fellowship that have been ours here, I am sure we can say with the Apostle Paul that "He hath blessed us with all spiritual blessing in heavenly places in Christ." We have had the blessing of the class room as well as the blessing of practical Christian work. There are innumerable ways in which He hath blessed us. We saw His handwork in the small things as well as the great. The pleasure has been ours to live together as one large family with the supreme aim in mind of serving Him.

As we face the world of darkness, which knows not the true Light, we rededicate our lives to Him that He might use us as He sees best. The whole world is groping in darkness and we, who are "the light of the world," will be spreading the light of the glorious Gospel to different sections of the globe. This is not a minor task, but we face it not alone, for "we are workers together with Him."

President's Message

As the Apostle Paul pushed his weary feet along the city streets and country lanes, deep within his heart beat the realization that he was a chosen vessel, chosen to bear a name.

Others likewise have been chosen for tasks great and small. But what a joy, yea, what a responsibility to be chosen, as Paul was, for the task of bearing Christ's name! It was of this name that Peter spoke when he stated, "There is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved." This name was rightly called by Isaiah "Wonderful, Counselor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace," for it is by this name, and this one only, that light permeates darkness, the guttermost is transformed to the uttermost, the villain becomes the valiant, the helpless becomes the helper, the dreary night is replaced by the dawn of the glorious light, lives of sin are transformed to lives of love, and a despondent dread of death is replaced by a joyful realization of possession of life everlasting. What a soul-stirring, heart-warming, life-giving name!

As we, the class of August '46, consider the fact that we too have been selected to bear this name, we keenly feel our great need of constant dependence upon God's strength for the task. Although the task is great and the trials many, we are glad to be included in that vast number of saints whom God has labeled in His matchless grace, "Chosen, to bear my name."

"Going Forth"

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

And be not conformed to this world: but ye be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

Dear Father and Mother, I am
nearly in the skin
the road (short).
Rom. 1:16

May the God supply what you want. Please to excuse you for this note. I do have a good Hammett
in 80 all night.

"Au Revoir"

GO YE INTO ALL THE
WORLD AND PREACH
THE GOSPEL TO EVERY CREATURE.

MARK 16:15
